Marin, April 16.-A most horrists rea at Angiesola, a vilinge in the rince of Lerida. The usual services prevince of Lerida. The usual services of Good Priday were being observed, and the church was filled to the utmost capacity with devout worthings. Everything was calm, as became the selema ceremonies, and Pather Pransicco Marti, the priset in flarge of the parish, was kneeling at be alter.

saly, and without a word of ming, a man armed with a revel-and a short award aprang out a behind the pulpit to the of the aitar, where he had a consoled, and rushed upon the of, brandishing his sword. Father til, when beck was to the congreion, seemed to have instinctive ming that danger threatened him he partly turned his head in direction of the man. But he was too late to do more a raise his hand to attempt ed off the sward blow he saw had long served. blow had struck of his neck, and the blade almost severed his ead from his body. The corpse fell ward and a stream of blood poured wn the altar steps. Part of the hand priest had raised in his vain effort ward off the blow was cut off and tay beside the bleeding body. A Woman Billed.

By this time the people realised the swfulness of the tragedy they had just seen enacted. Women shricked in terror and many of them fainted away. Some fow of the more cool-headed men attending the services made an attempt to seize the murderer, but they were thwarted by the assassia, who had un-doubtedly armed himself with a revolver for just such a contin-gency. Laveling this weapon he fired right and left and drave his would-be captors to seek safety in flight. One woman, shrinking and crouching close to the altar rails, was hit by one of the bullets. She uttered a piercing shrink, throw up her hands and fell dead to the foor. Many Mart.

The warshipers were panie-stricken. A general rush was made for the doors, and many of the people were thrown own and trampled upon by the excited brungs behind them. Several of them rore quite earlously injured in this man-less, among the number being some bildren who, it is believed, will die. The assessio, whose revolver jwas now emplied, agreen into the feeing crowd, and, windling his sword, still driphe sinahed right and left, his way to the street.

newd huddled closer together
id the vicious blows aimed at making as far as possible a clear with for the murderer, but quite a mber of them were hit by the sharp weapen and very dangerously wounded.
When he reached the street the assessing started on a run and soon vanished.

Thus far every effort to capture the murderer has been vain, but the search has not been abandoned. The tragedy has not been abundoned. The tragedy has caused widespread servew and indignation, and the whole village of finglesols is in mourning for Father Marti, who was universally loved and respected by his parishimors. It is thought probable that the assassin has sought some secluded place and there it illed himself. We reason in enown for the crime, and it is believed sy simost everyone that the man was

GREAT NAVAL PARADE.

Amendment to the Naval Appropriation Bill-$300,000 for Expenses. The Loading Foreign Nations Will Be Invited. WASHINGTON, April 16 .- After a conference with the various parties interested in the great international naval review to be held in Hampton Roads and New York harbor in April. 1893, Senator John W. Daniel, Virginia, will on Monday introduce in the senate an amendment to the naval appropriation bill appropriating $300,000 for the expenses of the review and the entertainment of the official guests of the nation who will accompany foreign fleets. The ing law, extend to foreign nations a formal invitation to participate in the review, as soon as congress provides the necessary appropriation. It movement that many of the presidents of the American republics and the reigning sovereigns of several European nations will come with their fleets. It is particularly desired that the king and queen of Italy and the queen regent of Spain shall participate in the ceremo-

WILL BE MORE FIGHTING. The War of the Wyoming Cattlemen Not

Ended Tet CHEVENNE, Wyo., April 16.-Reports from the scene of the cattle war indicate that the trouble has by no means been ended by the arrival of United States troops. The feeling stirred up by the killing of Champion and Roy by the big cattle owners is extremely bitter, and as soon as the soldiers are taken away hostilities will likely be resumed. The worst of the situation is that guerrille warfare is likely tion is that guerrille warfare is likely to be the result, and men will be picked off singly by soncealed marksmen as they ride along lonely trails. The prisoners charged with the killing of Roy and Champion are to be taken to Douglas to await the action of the grand jury, and there is a probability of an attempt to lynch them, when a general fight will take place

A Paverable Newspaper Comment. London, April 16.—The Daily News, in addition to declaring that no same being can doubt that the offer of indemnity of the New Orleans lynching made by the United States to Italy was dictated solely by a sense of right, says the dignified observations of the New York Herald, Tribune and Times might profitably be studied by some organs of opinion on this side of the ocean.

Thousands of Boomers Camped on the Oklahoma Line

AWAITING THE WORD TO ENTER

Eager to Enter the Coveted Lands-The President's Proclamation Published. A Harvest for Gamblers.

Et Rano, O. T., April 16 .- The excitement over the Cheyenne and Arapa hee lands is quieting down, due prin-cipally to the fact that new arrivals are materially increasing. The boomers in their wagons continue to pour in all along the border, but the crowd coming in by rail is not as large as that which moved on the Oklahoma country three years ago, and as the time for the opening draws near it begins to look as though the crowd that will go in will not be nearly as great as that which entered Okiahoma. The soldiers sta-tioned along the northern border es-timate that there are 3,500 peo-ple on the line east of Cantonment and about 1,000 west. There are perhaps 12 000 people ready to go in from the east and 7,000 or 8,000 in the Washita country, while about 8,000 Texans are drawn up along the south line. There are not many people on the west line. On the north line, about 10 miles east of Cantonment, there are 1.500 people from western Kanaus camped in one banch. The Maps Are Wrong.

GUTHRIE, O. T., April 16 .- In all sections of Oklahoma there is great excitement about the opening of the Cheyenne and Arapahoe Indian reservation. The Oklahoma State Capitol published yesterday the official proclamation of President Rervison, and thousands of copies were sold. An examination of the list of lands in the proclamation and comparison with the allotment maps sold here show that the map is very insecurate. Some of the letted to the Indians are really open to settlers. It is believed that the maps were made in the interest of certain land speculators, who hoped in this way to keep the people off some of the choice sections and secure the land for

During the past week over $100,000 have been deposited in the banks at El Reno and Kingdeber by the white boomers. Many of those who did not deposit their money have had it stolen from them or have lost much of it in gamling. The gamblers have reaped a harvest for three or four days. Kansas City and Wichita have emptied all their crooks into towns on the border of the reservation, and the local officers are unable to cope with such a gang with any degree of success.

Piling Their Claims. WATERTOWN, S. D., April 16.-The line at the land office is longer than before the opening Friday noon. Ofthe 1.000 flings made Friday sixty were rejected on account of conflict, and anxious crowds bovered about the bulletin boards where the names of the unfortunates were posted. Everything is harmonious on the lower end of the ing the entire rush not one case of drunkenness was reported.

Plenty of Fine Land Left. LEDGERWOOD, N. D., April 16 .- There was scarcely any trouble here in settling. In almost every instance the boomers got what they wanted and nowhere are there two men on the same quarter section. Plenty of fine farm land is to be had for several weeks to come, as the greatest rush was made from points east and south of the reservation. While there were large crowds of home-seekers here, the land tributary to this point was not cut up so much by Indian allot-ments as that near Brown's valley, Wilmot and Watertown.

The Sisseton Reservation.

[The Sisseton Indian reservation surplus lands that were opened to settlement at mon Friday are located in the northeastern corner of Settla Dakota, covering most of Robert county, lapping over on the edge of Marshall and Day counties, creeding the panhandle of Grant and the sharp point of the triangular-shaped reservation extending down to the center of Coddington, a few miles from Watertown. The northern base of the triangle extends over into Sargent and Richiand counties in North Dakota, and for that reason fillings may be made at Fargo. The lands are rich and numerous lakes cover the entire extent of the reservation, a good portion of which is wooded and of a hilly charalter. In fact the character of the lands reflects much credit on the judgment of the Sistenders much credit on the judgment of the Sistenders in the contractor of the lands reflects much credit on the judgment of the Sistenders in the contractor of the lands reflects much credit on the judgment of the Sistenders in the contractor of the lands reflects much credit on the judgment of the Sistenders in the contractor of the contractor of the sistenders in the contractor of the contractor of the sistenders in the contractor of the sistenders The Sisseton Reservation. reflects much credit on the judgment of the Sis-scion Indiana, who chese this land as their re-ward for their help to the settlers in the Indian ward for their help to the settlers in the Indian war of 1862. For nearly thirty years they held the reservation intact but finally concluded that they would prefer to have their lands in severalty and live like whites, so the matter was soon arranged, with the aid of a commission, and Friday's scramble for lands is the result. The Indians have selected many of the best lands on the reservation, but it is estimated that enough for about 4.000 claims of 160 acres each still remained up to noon Friday.]

An Insurance Fallure. Sr. PAUL, Minn., April 18.-The St. Paul German Fire Insurance Company has assigned for the benefit of its creditors. Insufficient business is given as the cause of the failure. It is said that all obligations of the company will be met in full, and the only sufferers will be the stockholders. The St. Paul German Accident Insurance Company is not affected by the failure.

PITTEBURGE, Pa., April 18. - Wiliam Smith, a prominent resident of the I welfth ward and at one time recognized as a millionaire, dropped dead Firday morning. He was once the owner of the national pipeworks. He ices his fortune by an unfortunate in restment. After his failure Mr. Smith went to Ohio to live. He only returned to his old home recently. He was about to years old.

Two Men Milled by a Train

Ourcaso, April 16. Shortly after 16 o'clock Friday night the Wankegar accommodation on the Chicage & North western road struck and killed two an known men who were walking on the track about one mile south of Highland Park. The trainmen were in no way to biame for the occurrence, as Engineer James Robinson noticed them before the secident occurred and biam his whistle repeatedly and did his nimest to stop the train, but without sporess. The man had the appearance of being tramps.
